

WASHINGTON DAILY
NEWS

SEP 16 1965

A new Washington business service, to be known as DIAL, in the Barr Building, has been announced by A. Olivia Nicoll, director of Federal-State Reports, publishers of the Dairy Industry Newsletter. It expects to perform for its subscribers such chores as locating the right person to contact in connection with any Federal program or regulation arranging appointments with Government or Congressional people, etc.